Christmas in Salem, one of the nation's oldest, largest and most historic house tours returns to kick off the holiday season in Salem, MA. Twelve 18th and 19th century homes, plus historic "legacy sites" that honor the tour's 30th anniversary, are just the beginning. There are concerts, lectures, boutiques, holiday teas and wine tastings. Restaurants, retailers, museums, theatres, and have special offers for tour goers, many valid throughout December. The tour is sponsored by Historic Salem, Inc., one of the country's oldest civic preservation groups. Full details, directions and tickets are available at www.christmasinsalem.org. Tickets are $25 in advance online, at selected retailers, or by calling 978-745-0799. Tickets on Saturday and Sunday are $30 and available only at day-of-tour headquarters.
